

We love the protection we receive from the NJ Do Not Call Registry. As a mom, my time is precious, and getting disturbed at the most inopportune times (especially during the making and eating of dinner) is very frustrating. We are highly satisfied with this registry and do not wish any changes to be made. Please continue to support the NJ Do Not Call List Registry.

Thank you.